DIRECTIONS—Public Transportation

The nearest T stop is the Mass. Ave. stop on the Orange line. Walk down Mass. Ave. (south) towards the Boston Medical Center, turn right on Washington Street, and Cooper is two blocks up on the right.

The Mass. Ave. bus (#1 or the CT1) from Cambridge stops at the intersection of Mass. Ave. and Washington Street.

The 49 bus to and from Dudley Station stops on Washington Street just in front of Cooper. The Silver Line at the Lenox Street stop is in front of Cooper.

For driving directions, please use Mapquest or Google maps. Parking is available behind the center.

Workshops Offered:

Morning workshop is keynote session. Afternoon session is your choice—pick one of four workshop offerings.

AM Keynote Session: Doing What is Needed. Leader: Rev. Curtis Brown.

Becoming a relevant and powerful church requires a deep understanding of the ministry needs of the neighborhoods and communities that you are serving. In this workshop, you will learn how to assess the deep needs of your ministry area by asking good questions, conducting some research, and building relationships. From this basis, you will learn key steps in developing a ministry plan that engages these needs.

PM Sessions (your choice):

Learn more about being in mission in your communities, our region, and the world.

- Youth in Mission (for adult leaders of youth/young adults)
- Local and Regional Mission Opportunities and Resources.
- Volunteers in Mission in the New England Conference.
- Mission Opportunity for Youth (hands-on project at Cooper Center, ages 12-17)
