

Expected Standards for Applications or Exams
(BOM Plagiarism Statement)

All written materials should be in a written form acceptable for professional level papers and conform to the highest moral standards when using as a resource the words or thought of others. This may include direct or slightly modified quotation, as well as heavy reliance on the development of an idea. Borrowed materials must be credited appropriately. If these requirements of the application are not fulfilled, the application may be disqualified.